JAP GUARDS AND RESIDENTS MASSACRED

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—Japanese guards in the district of Nikolaevsk, eastern Siberia, are believed to have been annihilated and several hundred Japanese residents, including the Japanese consul there, massacred, according to an official statement issued by the Japanese foreign office and made public today by the state department.

The Japanese statement said the suspension of communication with the district rendered it impossible to get at the real state of affairs, but that it was evident that "a serious upheaval" had taken place. Efforts of the Japanese to despatch a military expedition into the district have failed, because of the ice.

Meanwhile, however, the Japanese have sent an expedition to Alexandrovsk, accompanied by the warships Mikasa and Mishima. The forces reached their destination April 22 and found Japanese residents in that district safe. Most of them were taken aboard the Mikasa.

FIGHTING IN CHIHUAHUA CITY BY REBS, FEDERALS

AGUA PRIETA, SONORA, April 28.—Approximately 1,000 Carranza troops at Aguila and Jimenez, Chihuahua, revolted yesterday, according to information given out here today by General P. Elias Calles, commander of the revolutionists in northwest Mexico.

EL PASO, TEXAS, April 28.—Fighting in Chihuahua City between Carranza and loyal troops was reported by Carranza officials in Juarez today following establishment of wire communication as far south as Terrell, a station on the Mexican Central Railway 30 miles north of the state capital.

Developments in the situation up to today, as compiled from official statements from opposing leaders and press dispatches were:

Six hundred men of the 62nd Infantry under Colonel Figueroa had revolted in Chihuahua City.

Reported that General D. Martinez and Lieutenant Colonel Alvarado, who have no troops, had joined the revolting forces.

Revolting troops proceeded as far north on a Mexican Central train as Moctezuma, after which they returned to the state capital, burning bridges along the way to cut off troops from the north.

Colonel Francisco Del Arco reported in command of the revolting troops, is in Ortiz at the head of the 43rd Infantry.

Reports that the garrisons at Moctezuma, Guadalupe and Santa had revolted, accompanied by Juarez military men.

Two thousand troops from Terrell and 6,000 from Juarez were rushed to Chihuahua City to put down the uprising.

Troops concentrated at Casas Grandes for the Sonora campaign probably will be brought to Juarez tomorrow to be held in readiness for a possible campaign in Chihuahua.

Two hundred and fifty men of the Juarez garrison were rushed south last night to repair bridges.

Made Strong Showing In State

Major General Leonard Wood

WOOD LEADS IN NEW JERSEY

NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—Major General Leonard Wood still was leading Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California, this afternoon in New Jersey's preferential presidential primary contest.

The Californian, who took the lead on the first returns last night, but who was 755 votes behind his opponent at seven o'clock this morning, managed to cut down this margin at one time to 332, but later the general regained ground somewhat.

At 12:45 o'clock revised returns for 1520 election districts out of 2025 gave Wood 14,770 and Johnson, 40,237.

Election of three members of the Republican "Big four" was assured. United States Senators Walter E. Edge and Joseph S. Frelinghuysen, pledged to the presidential preference, expressed by the voters of the state, led to their eight opponents by substantial pluralities, while former Governor Edward C. Stokes, pledged to Wood, obtained third place.

Complete returns from the twelfth district showed Johnson had obtained two more district delegates, bringing his total to six as compared to Wood's four.

In this district both Johnson and Wood candidates for outposts had pledged to Senator Harding of Ohio. This was the only district in which the name of Harding appeared.

HOUSTON, April 28.—The organization states of Republican and Democratic candidates for delegates at had been questioned throughout the night and broke down after being identified by a workman as having been washing his hands in the Clinton river near the scene of the crime a few minutes after his discovery.

Senator Henry Calles today led the Republican "Big four" who headed the ballot as a group. He was followed in the order named by Speaker Frederick H. Gillett, of the national house of representatives, former Senator William Murray Crane and Edward Thompson, former chairman of the Republican state committee.

The Democrats' "regulars" were elected by minorities of three and four to one over former Congressman (Continued on Page Eight)

Wood Makes Strong Showing; Johnson And Hoover Get Many Votes In The State; Governor Cox Unopposed

COLUMBUS, O., April 28.—Late returns today from yesterday's preferential primary election in Ohio from all but 49 of the 5,882 precincts in the state showed that Senator Harding was leading General Wood by 12,633 votes. The vote in 5,300 precincts stood:

For Harding 115,911
For Wood 103,278

Returns from 1,721 out of 5,882 precincts in Ohio showed that three Harding men and one candidate pledged to Wood were leading in the race for delegates at large to the Republican national convention. The vote stood:

Daugherty (Harding) 37,277
Galvin (Harding) 28,557
Turner (Wood) 25,359
Wilbur (Harding) 28,360
Royd (Wood) 21,688
Herrick (Harding) 108,951

Returns late this afternoon indicated that thirty-eight and possibly forty of the forty-eight delegates from Ohio to the Republican national convention may be pledged to Senator Harding on first choice.

The same returns, which may be altered in one or two districts upon later notices, showed that Wood probably would have eight and possibly ten of the Ohio delegates. Returns showed three of the four delegates at large apparently elected pledged to Harding and one pledged to Wood.

Harding candidates had no opposition in three districts, and appear to have carried fourteen districts. Wood candidates apparently were successful in three districts. Two districts were still in some doubt, but in one of these districts—the nineteenth (Youngstown), one Wood and one Harding candidate appeared to be leading on available returns.

WHY BE DULL AND LAZINESS THIS SPRING?

"Spring Fever" Is Natural, But Not Necessary—It's Due to Stagnant Blood

KEEP FEELING YOUR HAPPIEST

Purify and Tone Up Your Blood With That Famous Tonic, People's Mangan

Do you seem unable to do any work, to concentrate, to take any interest in things, during the wonderful Spring days? Do you feel just useless and "un-renewed"?

Nothing is really the matter, except that, as happens every Spring, your blood is sluggish—it is sluggish with poisons from the long Winter.

In these, your blood will probably adjust itself. But meanwhile you feel and worry, feel unhappy—and accomplish nothing. Why do it, when it is easy to clear up your body by taking People's Mangan for a while for thirty days?

Doctors have been recommending this effective and agreeable tonic to purify and build up the blood of run-down, listless people.

Feel your best. Have a fine color and spring in your step. Be vigorous, happy, red-blooded. Get a bottle of People's Mangan today. The nearest drugstore has it. Find it in either liquid or tablet form, just as you prefer. There's no difference in medicinal value.

But be sure you get the genuine People's Mangan. Ask for it by that name—People's Mangan—and be sure the full name is on the package—Advertisement.

"Dark Horse" Candidate

Considerable talk has been floating around of the need of a "dark horse" candidate for president on the Republican ticket.

Major Wm. N. Gableman has received a post card from Chicago addressed to the "Horn, Maroon." On the side was a picture of the White House, Washington.

On the other was a message, written in a poor hand with ink in which Louis A. Baird states that he is a "dark horse" candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency, that he is 40 years old, an ex-soldier, a bachelor and a statesman of St. Louis. He urges the defeat of General Wood on the ground that he is a militarist.

Mr. Baird, while he states that he is enjoying single blessedness, fails to say whether he is in the market. He suggests the mayor to urge his candidacy among his friends.

No Danger.

PREDICTS 5-CENT DAILY;

15-CENT SUNDAY PAPER

NEW YORK, April 28.—Following closely upon the recent pledge of the newspaper publishers to further conserve the dwindling supply of pulp paper, certain newspapers today had 15 cents a pound for any available tonnage. It was a record price for New York and for the country as well. Very little paper, it is said, was to be had even at that price.

One of the leading publishers said today that the 15-cent Sunday paper and the five-cent daily are already in sight in this country. Unless the rapidly rising cost of paper and other items of newspaper operation are quickly checked, "it is not a matter of profit," he said, "it is a matter of self-preservation."

DUPUY AND SPRAGUE MAROONED ON SMALL DYKE; SUFFER LOSS OF CAMPING CLOTHES

The swirling muddy waters of the Scioto in front and behind threatening, pole cats all around and no dry land footage for a hasty retreat, Thomas J. Dupuy and Orval Sprague, two local sportsmen, had quite an exciting moment while stranded on a small dyke, near their camp on Scioto Trail this week.

A companion had ferried them to the dyke from camp, then left after unloading his passengers. The two men rambled down the top of the dyke watching for animal "refugees" unaware of trouble, until the "skunk division" laid down a gas barrage, which caught Orval Sprague squarely with-out his gas mask at "atert."

The "Sprague-Dupuy" line crumbled quickly with the whole personnel taking "to the air." An advantageous position was assumed in a friendly tree, "camouflaged with grapevines." While Sprague was attempting to establish a "line of communication with the Navy," another "skunk division" landed the campers, "neutralizing the complete" evacuation of the tree by the aid of grapevines.

Luckily the "Navy" arrived beneath the tree as the two dropped out and a successful retreat was effected. At headquarters, it was reported that the only casualties included two suits of perfectly good camping clothes.

CHILlicothe, April 28.—Nash Hogan and Verry Ross, residents of Chillicothe, were arrested yesterday on Cango Creek, just north of Hinton by Game Protector W. A. Francis, who arrested the pair on a charge of electrocuting fish in the creek. Francis says he found that Hogan and Ross attached a wire to the third rail of the Scioto Valley Traction Co.'s interurban line, and had grounded the other end of the wire in the creek with a chance of electrocuting fish in the creek. No idea of the number of fish so killed can be given, but Francis states that the slaughter was terrific. When arrested before Spire 1. M. SOCIETY

The very pretty wedding uniting the lives of two prominent young people, Miss Sadie G. Carter and Mr. Edward A. Redden, was solemnized at Seabrook Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride, in the presence of the relatives and intimate friends. The rooms were made beautiful for the occasion by the color-scheme of pink and white. Miss Ann Sullivan of Buena Vista, special friend of the bride, played the wedding music and the accompaniment for Miss Mollie Sullivan, who sang "Oh Promise Me" previous to the ceremony. Lohengrin's wedding march announced the approach of the bride, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, in a costume of pale pink organdy, with a corsage of sweet peas. She was followed by the ring-bearer, Miss Virginia Hageman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hageman. Leading the ring on a white satin pillow. The bride, who approached the rooms from the stairway, was becomingly attired in a toilette of pearl gray satin and georgette, with silver lace trimmings, and a touch of old rose, with silver slippers, and wore a corsage bouquet of bride's roses. She was met at the altar, which was improvised by a background of flowers and ferns, by the groom and his best man, Mr. Jasper Redden, of Vancouber. Brother of the groom, Rev. G. S. Leighton of Tronton read the impressive ring service. After the ceremony and congratulations, the guests were served with an ice course of pink and white, by friends of the bride, Misses Virginia Baker of Cincinnati, Esther and Garret Brooks of Portsmouth. On their return they will be happily domiciled in a home already furnished for their occupancy on Clay street, Seabrook.

Dear Dolly--I am in love with a young girl who is some few years younger than I. I have kept company with her for several months. Every time I mention love to her she laughs at me as though making fun. Now I tell her this girl dearly and do not want to leave her up. Do you think she has been told of me? What can I do to prove my love is sincere and not just a flattery as she thinks it to be.

WORRIED BOY.

Dear Dolly--I want to know what a man will use a stone ball in his collar instead of a button when collar buttons are so cheap.

DIMPLES.
Maybe his last button pulled under the bed and he couldn't find it.

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

Most people lose half of every batch, and seem to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

An Avicol table, placed in the drinking water, will positively save your little chicks from all such disaster. Inside of 48 hours the sick ones will be as lively as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow and develop.

Mrs. Vanille Thacker, R. F. D. 1, St. Paris, O., writes: "I had 50 chicks and they all died but 32. Then I commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. They have grown wonderfully."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find that it prevents and cures white diarrhoea, chick cholera and all bowel diseases of poultry, tell us and your money will be refunded by return mail. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry supply dealers, or you can send 25c or 50c today for a package by mail postpaid. Burrill-Burgess Co., 412 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Joseph P. O'Connell who made his campaign on an anti-prohibition issue. Those elected are: Senator David L.

Walsh, Richard H. Long, twice Democratic nominee for governor, District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier and Daniel P. Doherty.

Of the 35 Republican delegates, including those at large, 29 are unpledged but several of these have announced their intention to vote for Major Leonard Wood and four were pledged to Wood and four were described on the ballot as favorable to him.

The entire Democratic delegation is unpledged.

The complete vote for candidates for delegate at large, was: Republican—14,488; Gillett, 62,251; Crane, 60,925; Thurston, 48,947; Frothingham, 22,963; Fuller, 20,123; Lawson, 18,721; McCall, 31,493; Wood, 12,582.

The "big four" Republican candidates carried 24 of the 28 cities.

During the campaign Hiram Johnson's headquarters repudiated endorsements of certain candidates by Johnson local organizations.

The Democratic contests for district delegates were largely factional. Michael A. O'Leary, chairman of the Democratic state committee, was defeated in the eighth district, running third in a field of five.

Arkansas G. O. P. Convention Meets

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 28.—

The Arkansas State Republican convention met here today to elect four delegates at large to the national convention in Chicago and transact other business pertaining to the coming campaign in Arkansas.

One of the matters to be taken up today was the selection of a national committeeman. The state committee has endorsed H. L. Remmel, of Little Rock, for re-election.

Leaders generally predicted the delegation to Chicago would go unimpaired. Active pre-convention campaigns had been conducted by supporters of Governor Frank Lowmyer, of Illinois, and Major General Leonard Wood, candidates for presidential nomination.

Idaho G. O. P. Convention Opens

COLORADO SPRINGS, IDAHO, April 28.—State Republican convention met here today to select eight delegates to the National convention at Chicago and decide on instructions for them to follow in voting on the presidential nomination.

Sentiment prior to the convention session apparently favored an unimpaired delegation. Northern Idaho was conceded four delegates by the Southern Idaho delegates who held an informal caucus and said they favored dividing the state evenly as to representation at the national assembly.

POLITICS

NEW YORK, April 28.—The most spirited amenities of the Presidential campaign have developed in New Jersey, where the Johnson men have selected as the target for their attack Colonel William Cooper Procter in place of his candidate, General Wood.

The assaults upon Colonel Procter were predicted by a statement emanating from the Wood men. The attacks were intended to nullify the opposition to Johnson among Jerseyites who regarded him as a "dry."

Whereas Johnson's supporters said he was not a "dry," the Wood people declared that Johnson was a "dry" or a "wet," according to geography; that he was a "wet" in the West and a "dry" in the East. Immediately there came from William L. Verdon, the Johnson leader in Hoboken, a series of statements of which the following is an example: "The Wood managers are attempting to state that the money from the Wood campaign, which pays for these absurd and unfounded tales about Johnson, comes largely from the funds contributed by Colonel William Cooper Procter."

Concerning Colonel Procter, Mr. Verdon continued: "He is the commander in chief of the Wood campaign forces; he is one of the principal angels of the Anti-Saloon league. Procter's soap trust money went far in financing the Anti-Saloon league and rendering it possible for that organization to impose prohibition on the people of the United States. It is an absolute certainty that William Cooper Procter would never be leading the Wood campaign unless he knew that General Wood was every bit as 'bone dry' as himself."

WASHINGTON, April 28.—President Wilson, it is understood, has privately passed words that all good Democrats are free to do as they please regarding running for the Presidential nomination at San Francisco. No one is to have a lock on his account.

The impression is strong here that no statement outlining the President's political aspirations, or lack of them, may be expected from the White House before the San Francisco convention next June. Then, through a message to his party in the form of a farewell address, he is expected to announce his determination to retire from active participation in politics. In this message, which is expected to be one of the finest things the President has ever done, it is believed he will restate his principles as to the peace treaty, the league, etc., and outline what he believes is the party's policy for the future.

Foot Vigor

NO MATTER what you do—indoors or outdoors—whether play—you never can have real enjoyment unless your feet are comfortable and strong. So much depends on your feet.

Don't you think it is very much worth while to try and keep your feet youthful and strong? The mere matter of selecting shoes carefully is a small price to pay for foot health.

Arch Preserver Shoes preserve foot health because they fit the feet, come up to the arch and stay up, providing a permanent, non-changing tread base for the foot—to keep the arch from falling down.

Yet Arch Preserver Shoes are stylish and you always feel well dressed in them.

Won't you let us show you how well we can fit your feet in Arch Preservers?

Well the sale started and folks have been buying silks ever since. We are convinced that as April showers bring May flowers so will these April silks bring May dresses.

The opera was entitled the Isle of Chance, and Lowry took the part of Lord What's-his-name, a nobleman who had been shipwrecked and thrown up by the sea on the island. The part gave him an opportunity to show rare ability as an actor.

ISSUES FINAL APPEAL TO BUY WAR SAVING STAMPS

Mayor W. N. Gableman today issued a final appeal for the people of this city to buy War Savings Stamps and $100 Treasury Savings Certificates during the next few days. According to work from the Ohio War Savings Committee Officers must buy at least $1,000,000 worth of government savings securities during the next few days if Ohio is to maintain its lead over New York. That this amount may be obtained Mayor Gableman has been asked to have the citizens of this community buy their respective quota. The race between Ohio and New York during April has developed into a neck and neck affair.

Now Is The Time To Begin Swatting The Pesky Fly

Now is the time to be actively on the defensive with regard to that summer pest, the fly. "Swat the fly" has been a much observed slogan these past few years and now people are awaking to a broader vision of the fly question and realize the only way to free the fight against the fly, which is the cause of so much ill health among children and grown-ups, and take mortality, is to get at the basis of the matter.

Where flies breed amid refuse and filth is the place of attack.

The members of the Woman's City Club in whose hands this phase of the fly question is entrusted by the Chamber of Commerce, has been placed at work to put before the public means and means of eliminating the fly.

Cover all refuse such as garbage, cover all open basins; treat manure with strong solutions, lime or borax; leave no food uncovered, screen the houses; place fly traps in the yards; agitate against bad sewage.

AFTER "FLU," GRIP

Fever and Other Prostrating Diseases That Exhaust the Blood.

There is often that extreme tired feeling, loss of appetite, tendency to anemia, nerve exhaustion, irritable bowels, constipation and great danger of still further prostration and serious illness.

Hood's Sarsaparilla first works upon the blood. It is remarkable how promptly its purifying, vitalizing effects are noticed. It "makes food taste good," promotes assimilation so as to help secure the greatest nourishment possible, promotes digestion. Nerve strength and cheery health inevitably follow. Further danger is avoided and the glad-to-be-living feeling again prevails. To read this is well, to realize it yourself is better.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today, and for a cathartic, nothing better than Hood's Pills in small doses a gentle laxative; larger, an active cathartic.

Children Given Relief At The Trachoma Clinic

A pitiful case at the Free Trachoma Clinic, Gray Street Dispensary Tuesday was Luther Wright, son of Charles Wright of Franklin Furnace. The little boy of seven years had such a bad and long developed case of trachoma that he had to hold his head bowed to avoid the light. Goldie, his nine year old sister, was also in serious danger of blindness.

The children underwent the slight operation in which the growth is loosened and brushed from the lid and in a few days time they will be on the road to perfect sight.

Traffic Violators Caught

Traffic violations were numerous yesterday and no less than five alleged offenders were caught by the police and will be required to appear in Municipal court and explain to Judge Small.

W. Wedner and Homer Struett were the names given by the men arrested by Traffic Officer Stimme for speeding and H. E. Pratt parked his auto on the wrong side of the street while W. H. Ross and John Howell parked their machines on near fire plugs according to Stimme.

A man who registered as W. M. Tricker, a switchman, was the only other offender caught last night by the police. He was found on West Front street in an intoxicated condition by Officer Hinchbaugh, who towed him to the watchhouse.

House Allies.

White votes were being counted, with hundreds of men and politicians on the tip of anxiety and expectancy, those hard-headed lumberjacks, who are the backbone of the House, were the first to get down to business last night, in what will go down in history as the hardest fought series in the annals of the House of Representatives. The two teams fought like so many wild cats and they battled and cuffed, asking no quarter and giving none. The two teams were keyed up to their best efforts in the pre-game and they both shot over the 500 mark, with the lumberjacks coming through first. The winners of the opening game let down at this point, while the Diamonds kept their heads, hearts and feet and capped the second game with quite a margin of pins to the good. This tilted the lumberjacks and they saved wood for who tied the score in the last inning. With the lumberjacks won, they were very quiet, a bunch of pins so far as the totals were concerned—something that happens frequently in this world of unrest and reconstruction. Better balanced bowling was never before seen. Not a 200 total was made, although Messrs. Lyman and Noller were just as close to the coveted line as they could get and not reach it, 100 each, one with the other. Orville Sprague was the third best marksman with 182, and Salts he praised, Dan Lloyd, who has been rolling like a keg of nails up grade, came through in big league fashion, slapping the handball pin for 478—laural for D. L. President Edward Steinhart started out in big shape and crushed the no. 10 pin and then followed George Wilcox and Charles Daehler were there with balls on and did very nicely. Updegraff got 135, beating out Donald Ives by one pin. Frank J. Baker, while bringing up the rear, did very nicely and considering the bad breaks he got was very well satisfied with his showing. The scores:

Lyman	192	139	148	479
Ives	139	133	132	404
Updegraff	136	141	155	432
Baker	106	122	226	454
Noller	129	180	100	409

JUST DOPE

CINCINNATI, April 25—In spite of the native strength of the Cardinals, which was shown in their vicious attack on Jimmy Kling in the final rounds of the Sunday game, it begins to be evident that the main opponent of the Champions into the coming series between the West this year will be the Pittsburgh Club. This lends great interest to Reds and Pirates, which will consist of three games at Pittsburgh later this week and will close with a combat here next Sunday.

Skin Irritations that Itch and Burn

Cause Untold Torture As Warm Weather Approaches

Many cases of eczema, tetter, pimples, sealy eruptions, and other evidences of a disordered skin very often lie dormant or scratching the irritated skin, during the winter season, but become active as warm weather approaches, and soon break out into almost intolerable torture.

As soon as you realize that so-called skin diseases originate in the blood, and treat them accordingly, you will be on the right track to free yourself of this annoying trouble.

Just imagine that there is a steady blaze of fire in constant contact with your tender skin, and you can form some idea of the pain that must be endured by the afflicted. For the millions and millions of tiny disease germs that seem to burrow through the skin, each one carrying a torch of fire, cause pain that is almost unendurable.

And the constant plea of these afflicted is the oft-repeated question, "How can I find relief from this constant torture?" Not palliative, temporary relief that causes the terrible itching to abate for awhile, but real genuine relief that shakes off the shackles of the disease and restores the skin to its former healthy condition.

And the constant plea of most that can be expected from local treatment, such as ointments, salves, lotions, etc., which is one reason why these diseases seem to hold on with such tenacity. It is not because they are incurable, but because they are improperly treated, that they appear to be so stubborn and so difficult to cure.

The fact is they are misnamed, and therefore, improperly treated. Because the trouble attacks the skin and all the pain and discomfort is confined to the surface of the skin, these

CINCINNATI, April 25—The Reds have two championship flags to raise over the old home lot, and President Herrmann yesterday set the dates on which they will be sent fluttering to the breeze. The National League banner, the first ever won by a Cincinnati Club, will be hoisted on May 11, which is the day on which the Eastern Clubs begin their first invasion of Holland field for the season.

The New York Giants will be the opponents of the Reds on that date, making their first appearance of the year here. The League pennant has already been delivered and is now reposing in the Club office at the Ball Park.

On Saturday, May 22, will take place an even more impressive ceremony when the World Championship pennant won so handsily by Manager Moran's men last October will be sent up to float alongside the League banner. The Boston Braves will be here on that date and Major Galvin has agreed to declare it a half-holiday in the city so that as many fans as possible may witness the proceedings.

Walter Ruelter pitched another good game for the Reds yesterday when he beat St. Louis 3 to 2. There is no getting around the fact that he is one of the best southpaws in the game today. He has speed, control, mystifying curves and knows how to use his gray matter.

Outfielder McHenry failed to show any batting prowess in Cincinnati. He was up nine times and was "held harmless." He is a natural batsman and some one is going to suffer for this little slump. Mack played ball in the field in Redland.

NEW YORK, April 25—Frank Frisch, third baseman of the New York Nationals, who was seized with appendicitis while on his way here from Boston today, underwent an

Electrical Wiring

Notice to Persons Having Houses or Places of Business Wired!

Due to the supervision by the Ohio Inspection Bureau in Portsmouth and vicinity of the installation of Electrical Wiring; the standard of this work has been kept up to a standard that insured persons having Electrical Work done of a good, safe installation.

At the present time the Ohio Inspection Bureau has withdrawn its inspection in this locality, and there is no authorized inspector in the field at the present time. For this reason we feel it our duty to notify all persons having electrical wiring done, that they use extreme care in contracting for this work, by specifying that the work be done in accordance with the rules laid down by the Ohio Inspection Bureau. By doing this you will be saved the expense of possibly having your wiring condemned when a new inspector is sent to Portsmouth, and having to have your wiring done over again.

As a precaution to our customers to protect them from contractors who may take advantage of the conditions to install work that is not up to the standard required by the rules of the Ohio Inspection Bureau, The Portsmouth Street Railway & Light Company will refuse to connect any piece of work to their lines that does not conform strictly to the rules of the Ohio Inspection Bureau.

We are doing this for the benefit of our customers who are not familiar with the rules for wire installation, and to protect them from future expense and trouble, which will be sure to occur when a new inspector is put in the Portsmouth territory and their work is condemned.

Warning!

When making a contract for electrical wiring, be sure to specify that the work be done in accordance with the rules of the Ohio Inspection Bureau. Call us and have the work inspected before paying for it. Then if there are any changes to be made, the contractor will be obliged to make them at no further expense to you.

This will assure you a good job and the Company will connect you to its lines. We will absolutely refuse to connect work that does not meet the requirements of the Ohio Inspection Bureau.

AMONG OTHER WONDERS

IS said all signs fail in dry weather. This isn't dry weather, it is distinctly and alarmingly the contrary. It is a good period, extra good, for reading the signs, which much we judge from predictions innumerable made.

This one, however, which we cull from some campaign literature, manifest a nimbleness and skill at reading signs, the like of which has never been seen before the fact. This literature tells us that the defeat of Reed as delegate from Missouri, which was overwhelming and even viciously humiliating shows that the state is going republican this year.

We must confess, although we are from Missouri, that we don't get that at all. Ordinarily when a party is united it is considered a good sign it is at the tide of its strength, but here we have the majority party in the state agreed to a man on a given proposition and yet that spells disaster. So it may, but further remote from our dull wit is the understanding of what the action of a democratic convention has to do in promoting the aspirations of a particular republican. It will have to be diagrammed before it can be made clearer.

But of such is politics.

A COMPLIMENT TO THE DOG, BUT

THAT was an interesting story in The Times of yesterday about authorities sending for bloodhounds at Manchester, on the river below us, to trace the murderer of a whole Michigan family.

It contained a great credit to the canines, but what about its application to the intelligence of the officials? Hundreds of persons, most probably thousands of persons, drawn by morbid curiosity, have been drawn to the scene of the butchery. Evidently no clue to the perpetrator has been found, yet, a baying brute is expected, with a keen beyond that of mortal, to pick up his scent and run him to his lair.

OFF TO A POOR START

HAVE you any knowledge or information concerning one Howard Sutherland?

No; then let us tell you something concerning him. He is United States senator and a candidate for president, that is he thinks he is, but the possibilities of him cutting any ice at Chicago, beyond furnishing a sort of temporary shelter behind his name for the West Virginia delegation, while it considers which way the cat is going to jump, are so remote as to be negligible.

Sutherland disproves himself. He takes a nasty little fling at Wilson and broadly lampoons Wood in the statement that money may be able to buy a nomination, but it can't buy anything further than that than the fall of the Republican party. The Republican party, along with the country is tired of all this din and confusion of trying to tear down, it will have none of an office-seeker who hasn't a thought of construction and is ever crying destruction.

NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T

THE news of the proceedings of the supreme peace council is remarkable chiefly because it isn't news. One day we hear one thing and then next we hear another, which is altogether contradictory, and also suggestive of considerable thimble-rigging by the premiers of France, England and Italy.

Sunday we were told as the United States would not accept a mandate for Armenia that country had been created into an independent country and would govern itself, with some aid, financial, of course, from the Allies, with the bank to come from America, also of course.

Monday the announcement is made that a republic is created for Armenia and a digest request will be sent to President Wilson to have his government not only take over the mandate, but to go as far as he likes in saying what shall be the boundaries of the new nation. Quite complimentary, but one the President is likely to decline, especially as the first part.

News from the council, which quite everybody will hope is genuine, is that England will take the mandate for Palestine, which it is assumed is to have a sort of democratic government. With the notable exception of Ireland, England has governed all her dependencies in a broad and fair spirit, and there will be no departure in Palestine. So the world can rejoice that in the land where Judaism and Christianity were both born, there will be religious freedom and at last and an end to that intolerable oppression that has reigned therein for six centuries.

The strike is broken, say the railway managers: we are standing firm, say the strikers. Well, it doesn't much matter which is correct, provided freight moves faster and continues to accelerate.

Acute stagnation in iron and steel activities has been brought about through the switchmen's strike and production has fallen fifty per cent. The industry was already suffering from a car shortage and it may be some time before output approaches anywhere near normal, even if the labor situation were to clear immediately.

Oh, yes, it can stop raining, but the drawback is it doesn't stay stopped long enough.

Governor Hobby refuses to let the unrepentant Carranzistas set solid upon the sacred soil of Texas, though their mission be to exterminate the bandits and marauders, who infest the border just below. Not the first instance of a politician preferring the shadow for the substance, where votes appear to lie in the offing.

County commissioners think it is just "awful" the bridges and roads they will have to repair after these rains. May be it is, but just think how much worse it would be if Portsmouth hadn't bitten off a huge hunk of the county.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

CECIL HEARS LINDSEY'S TALK OF WOE.

June 21—Well I did make an idiot of myself today, sure enough. I started all morning and mother and the child went out to make some calls, leaving me alone. Even Aunt Cecilia was away, with Jeffrey, of course.

They are busy selecting all sorts of necessities just at present. So I curled up happily in a large armchair in dad's study, knowing that I would be left in peace there, and with a volume of Alice Key's to amuse me.

I read for some time and I think that some of her thoughts are above my head at times, for all of a sudden I closed the book and fell to dreaming. The harder I dreamed, the harder it rained, and between the two I got quite melancholy and sad.

Added to this I commenced to think of my many shortcomings, which is always fatal. In the end I was deep in the luxury of a good, wholesome crying fit, when I looked up to find Cecil standing over me and petrified to find his tiny cousin indulging in feminine tears.

He didn't say much, just sat down beside me and waited for the first to stop. I choked down a few quickly and suddenly burst out laughing, which did not deceive him any.

"And what is my little cousin weeping about?" he inquired in his low, sympathetic voice.

"Oh, nothing in particular, everything in general," I answered in my most dignified tones.

"Very few women, even young ones, cry for nothing," he assured me. "Come, fess up to old Cecil and let's see if two heads cannot help to drive the cobwebs away."

To my surprise, I did. And I

FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

"So he has fallen in love, has he? Well, I thought he had more sense than that," said Button when Day told him how Night had fallen in love with Spotty.

"So did I," replied Day, "and I would not have minded it so much if I had only liked her, but I could not endure the sight of her with her ugly liver-spotted sides."

It made Button laugh to see how jealous Day was.

"Why," he said, "I never thought before you could get mad and call names."

"Button, where are you taking me?"

side of the street as soon as we have gone by, taking care to keep out of our sight. My plan is to take both on board a steamer that lies at anchor ready to sail at daybreak tomorrow for Constantinople. I shall tell Night you are on it and he will come with me to get you off; but instead of getting you off, we will get him on, and what is more, we will keep him on so he will never get back to Spotty. Now you are to follow us on board the steamer and keep out of sight until we sail; and after that you can come out and make up with him. Now you stay right here until we come back, and no matter how many dogs pass, and how many people run away, for if you do it will spoil everything and I won't play again to get Night away from Spotty for you," said Button.

"Well, don't be long, for it will be awful lonesome here, and I shall be afraid every minute of a dog or a policeman finding me," said Day.

Button took a short cut, for going over fences, under fences, and across yards. But what was all this commotion he saw among the goats when he looked down from his perch on the top of the wall?

There was Night going from group to group, bleating and bawling in a most excited manner, and not even looking at Spotty, who came tagging after with a long face at not being noticed. When he came to the group by the wall under which Button was perched, he heard him say:

"Have any of you seen or heard of Day? I came back to the yard expecting to find her here, and she is nowhere to be found!"

(Tomorrow the other goats help Night.)

Just What He Was Going To Say

An Irishman in the employ of a Boston man had received an injury, not much more than a scratch, it appeared, but the employer had visions of being compelled to keep him for life. So the latter adopted the wise course of sending Dolan to a hospital at once. After the house surgeon had examined him carefully, he said to the nurse:

"As simultaneous abrasion is not observable, I do not think there is any reason to apprehend tegumental clarification of the wound."

Then turning to the patient, he asked quizzically:

"What do you think, Dolan?"

"Sure, you're a wonderful mind reader," said Dolan. "You took the very words out of my mouth. That's what I was going to say."

"This picture," said Mr. Gawker, "was painted in a garret," replied the proud owner.

"Well? Well?"

"A hundred thousand wouldn't buy it now."

"No?" said Mr. Gawker, eyeing the masterpiece more closely. "And I'm one of the hundred thousand."

What Does "Friend" Mean?

"That new C. O. of ours sure is a stand-offish guy," complained the private who had just come off guard, as he lay on his bunk.

"How come?" queried the barracks orderly.

"Well, last night I heard him coming up to my post, so I asks, 'who goes there?' He says, 'friend.' And this morning he don't hardly notice me."

All Going Smoothly

The chaplain came plodding along the road coming back from the front lines several hours after the infantry had gone over the top.

"How are things going up there?" inquired an artillery lieutenant.

"Fine, fine," said the chaplain. "We're knocking them for a goal."

"Haven't seen many prisoners," said the lieutenant, skeptically.

"No, and I guess you won't," replied the chaplain. "Our marching guns haven't jammed all morning."—Herald.

And I have seen him.

And wave my hand.

And he would smile back.

Nor did he know mine.

But I always look for him.

And I think he does for me.

HARDING LEADING WOOD BY 9,000 Wood May Capture One Of The "Big Four" HARDING SURE OF 11 STATE DISTRICTS; WOOD CINCHES THREE

Wood Makes Strong Showing; Johnson And Hoover Get Many Votes In The State; Governor Cox Unopposed

COLUMBUS, O., April 28.—Four thousand five hundred and sixty-four precincts out of 5,882 in Ohio, gave: Harding, 100,382; Wood, 91,191.

COLUMBUS, O., April 28.—Returns early this morning on yesterday's presidential preference primary election in Ohio from all but 1411 precincts out of a total of 5,882 in the state, showed that Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, was leading General Leonard Wood, of Massachusetts, by a little more than 9,000 votes. The vote stood: For Harding 97,406
For Wood 88,351

Fourteen counties, including the larger cities of the state, had reported complete and incomplete returns last night received from each of the other 14 counties. Although their names were not printed on the ballots, Hiram Johnson, of California, received 12,768 votes and Herbert Hoover, of California, received 8,288 votes in 3,440 precincts.

The name of Governor James M. Cox, of Ohio, was the only one appearing on the Democratic presidential ballot. In several districts over the state, however, the name of William G. McAdoo was written in. All Democratic candidates for delegate to the national convention were pledged to Cox.

Big Four May Be Split
Returns from 3,031 out of a total of 5,882 precincts in the state showed that Wood was leading in the race for delegates at large to the Republican national convention. The vote stood: Hiram T. Herrick (H) 87,425
Leon W. Wood (H) 76,620
Frank B. Willis (H) 70,091
William H. Boyd (W) 70,454
Edward C. Turner (W) 69,774
Harry M. Daugherty (H) 69,174

Additional returns early today indicated that Harding candidates for district delegates had been successful in 11 of the 22 districts of the state, while Wood candidates apparently had won in three districts. Five districts were still in doubt.

Candidates pledged to Harding had no opposition in three districts, so that available returns indicated that Harding men would attend the national convention from 14 districts.

WOOD LEADS IN NEW JERSEY

NEWARK, N. J., April 28.—Retrieved returns from 1,802 out of 2,025 election districts, tabulated at 7 o'clock this morning showed that Major General Leonard Wood was leading Senator Hiram W. Johnson, of California, by 735 votes in the New Jersey presidential preference primary contest. The vote was:
Johnson 47,754
Wood 48,302

Incomplete returns indicated that Wood had carried 13 out of the 21 districts in the state. Wood's vote was heaviest in the rural district of the central southern part of the state, while Johnson polled heavily in the rural districts of the north. Out of 223 missing precincts, 143 were in counties which gave Wood a majority in the early returns.

OPENING STOCKS

NEW YORK, April 28.—Price tendencies were downward at the outset of today's stock market dealings, yesterday's late rise of call money to 10 percent evidently dampening enthusiasm of traders. United States Steel opened with an offering of 4,000 shares at an extreme decline of 1 3/4, despite the favorable quarterly statement issued after the close of yesterday's session. Reading's initial sale showed a gain of 1 1/2 points. Other rails were irregular. Crude oil and minor issues of the same class were fractionally higher, but oils and equipments showed large fractions to 1 1/2 points. General Motors declined 3 points, but soon regained more than half its loss.

Weather

OHIO—Rain in extreme north portion this afternoon. Fair tonight and Thursday. Frost tonight. Slowly rising temperature Thursday.

Johnson local organizations. The Democratic contests for district delegates were largely factional. Michael A. O'Leary, chairman of the Democratic state committee, was defeated in the eighth district, running third in a field of five.

MACK HELD HITLESS

Outfielder Mack held hitless in his first game. He was up nine times and was held hitless. He is a natural batsman and some one is going to suffer for this little slump. Mack played ball in the field in his first game.

Reds Beat Cardinals

The Reds continue their good work. They again beat St. Louis yesterday, the score being 5 to 2. Ruether and Haines pitched good ball, but the latter had a bad first inning which spelled defeat for him. The score was 5 to 2.

Ruether Is Real Hurler

Walter Ruether pitched another good game for the Reds yesterday, when he beat St. Louis 5 to 2. There is no getting around the fact that he is one of the best pitchers in the game. He has speed, control, and a good curve.

Moritz Is New Captain

Howard Moritz, all-around athlete, yesterday was elected captain of the P. H. S. track team to succeed George Stalen who resigned last week.

Resignation Is Accepted

The resignation of George Stalen, captain of the P. H. S. track team, was accepted at a meeting of the Athletic Board.

New Uniforms Are Here

The baseball uniforms of the Industrial League have arrived at Henry Reilly's and they are some fifty pairs. The Selby team's new name Archers' uniforms, shows up splendidly on their white uniforms.

Fix Flag Raising Dates

CINCINNATI, April 28.—The Reds have two championship flags to raise over the old home lot, and President Hermans yesterday set the dates on which they will be sent, announcing to the breeze. The National League banner, the first ever won by a Cincinnati Club, will be hoisted on May 11, which is the day on which the Eastern Cubs begin their first invasion of Redland field for the season.

INVINCIBLES BOOST PERCENTAGE

The Invincibles raised their percentage from .222 to .238 by being two out of three in the last game of the season. The Invincibles started well, and played the first game, 21 to 15. The Invincibles played the best of the game, and played the best of the game.

Class Baseball Postponed

Class baseball at P. H. S. has been postponed, according to an announcement from the Athletic Board, and that it would be impossible for the P. H. S. teams to play the game.

Commencement At Otway

Four graduates, Bertha Halsey, T. O. Olson of Columbia, The Pilgrim, Bertha White, Bertha Gail, and Shores of this city, furnished the music for the exercises. The commencement was held in the Christian Union church which was filled with friends and relatives of the graduating class.

"Dark Horse" Candidate

Considerable talk has been floating around of the need of a "dark horse" candidate for president in the Republican ticket. Mayor Wm. N. Galloway has received a post card from Chicago, offering him the "dark horse" candidate for the Republican ticket.

WILL RED INFIELD STEAL MORE BASES THAN CARDINAL INFIELD?

CINCINNATI, April 28.—In spite of the native strain of the Cardinals, which was shown in their vicious attack on Jimmy Lane in the final rounds of the Sunday game, it is beginning to be evident that the main opponent of the Champions in the coming series between the West this year will be the Pittsburgh club. This team, which will consist of five games at Pittsburgh later this week and will close with a round robin at St. Louis. If the Reds succeed in breaking even in their two round robin games with the Cards, they will be in a position to practically even terms with the Cards and a battle royal will result.

Frisch Undergoes Operation

NEW YORK, April 28.—Frisch, third baseman of the New York Yankees, who was injured yesterday, underwent an operation today.

Smith Is Suspended

CINCINNATI, April 28.—Manager Lombard and left the club yesterday. Manager Lombard was suspended for the last game of the season.

Indians Halt White Sox

The Cleveland Indians stopped the St. Louis White Sox in the last game of the season. The Indians won 5 to 2, and the White Sox were eliminated from the playoffs.

AMONG OTHER WONDERS

It is said all signs fail in dry weather. This isn't dry weather, it is distinctly and alarmingly to the contrary. It is a good period, extra good, for reading the signs, which much we judge from predictions innumerable made.

This one, however, which we dull from some campaign literature, manifest a nimbleness and skill at reading signs, the like of which has never been seen before the fact. This literature tells us that the defeat of Reed as delegate from Missouri, which was overwhelming and even viciously humiliating shows that the state is going republican this year.

We must confess, although we are from Missouri, that we don't get that at all. Ordinarily when a party is united it is considered a good sign it is at the tide of its strength, but here we have the majority party in the state agreed to a man on a given proposition and yet that spells disaster. So it may, but further remote from our dull wit is the understanding of what the notion of a democratic convention has to do in promoting the aspirations of a particular republican. It will have to be diagrammed before it can be made clearer.

But of such is politics.

A COMPLIMENT TO THE DOG, BUT

THAT was an interesting story in The Times of yesterday about authorities sending for bloodhounds at Manchester, on the river below us, to trace the murderer of a whole Michigan family.

It contained a great credit to the canines, but what about its application to the intelligence of the officials? Hundreds of persons, most probably thousands of persons, drawn by morbid curiosity, have been drawn to the scene of the butchery. Evidently no clever to the perpetrator has been found, yet, a baying brute is expected, with a keen beyond that of mortal, to pick up his scent and run him to his lair.

OFF TO A POOR START

HAVE you any knowledge or information concerning one Howard Sutherland?

No, then let us tell you something concerning him. He is United States senator and a candidate for president, that is he thinks he is, but the possibilities of him cutting any ice at Chicago, beyond furnishing a sort of temporary shelter behind his name for the West Virginia delegation, while it considers which way the cat is going to jump, are so remote as to be negligible.

Sutherland disproves himself. He takes a nasty little fling at Wilson and broadly berates Wood in the statement that money may be able to buy a nomination, but it can't buy anything further than that than the fall of the Republican party. The Republican party, along with the country is tired of all this din and confusion of trying to tear down, it will have none of an office-seeker who hasn't a thought of construction and is ever crying destruction.

NOW YOU SEE IT, NOW YOU DON'T

THE news of the proceedings of the supreme peace council is remarkable chiefly because it isn't news. One day we hear one thing and then next we hear another, which is altogether contradictory, and also suggestive of considerable thimble-rigging by the promoters of France, England and Italy.

Sunday we were told as the United States would not accept a mandate for Armenia that country had been created into an independent country and would govern itself, with some aid, financial, of course, from the Allies, with the hunk to come from America, also of course.

Monday the announcement is made that a republic is created for Armenia and a direct request will be sent to President Wilson to have his government not only take over the mandate, but to go as far as he likes in saying what shall be the boundaries of the new nation. Quite complimentary, but one the President is likely to decline, especially as the first part.

News from the council, which quite everybody will hope is genuine, is that England will take the mandate for Palestine, which it is assumed to have a sort of democratic government. With the notable exception of Ireland, England has governed all her dependencies in a broad and fair spirit, and there will be no departure in Palestine. So the world can rejoice that in the land where Judaism and Christianity were both born, there will be religious freedom and at last an end to that intolerable oppression that has reigned therein for six centuries.

The strike is broken, say the railway managers; we are standing firm, say the strikers. Well, it doesn't much matter which is correct, provided freight moves faster and continues to accelerate.

Acute stagnation in iron and steel activities has been brought about through the switchmen's strike and production has fallen fifty per cent. The industry was already suffering from a car shortage and it may be some time before output approaches anywhere near normal, even if the labor situation were to clear immediately.

Oh, yes, it can stop raining, but the drawback is it doesn't stay stopped long enough.

Governor Hobby refuses to let the unrepentant Carranzistas set solid upon the sacred soil of Texas, though their mission be to exterminate the bandits and marauders, who infest the border just below. Not the first instance of a politician preferring the shadow for the substance, where votes appear to be in the offing.

County commissioners think it is just "awful" the bridges and roads they will have to repair after these rains. May be it is, but just think how much worse it would be if Portsmouth hadn't bitten off a huge hunk of the county.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

CECIL HEARS LINDSEY'S TALE OF WOE.

June 24—Well I did make an idiot of myself today, sure enough, it rained all morning and mother and the child went out to make some calls, leaving me alone. Even Aunt Cecilia was away, with her friends of course. They are busy selecting all sorts of necessities just at present. So I curled up happily in a large arm-chair in dad's study, knowing that I would be left in peace there, and with a volume of Ellen Key's to amuse me.

I read for some time and I think that some of her thoughts are above my head at times, for all of a sudden I closed the book and fell to dreaming. The harder I dreamed, the harder it rained, and between the two I got quite melancholy and sad. Added to this I commenced to think of my many shortcomings, which I always feel. In the end I was deep in the luxury of a good, wholesome crying fit, when I looked up to find Cecil standing over me and gestured to find his tiny cousin indulging in feminine tears.

He didn't say much, just sat down beside me and waited for the flow to stop. I choked down a few quickly and suddenly burst out laughing, which did not deceive him any.

"And what is my little cousin weeping about?" he inquired in his low, sympathetic voice.

"Oh, nothing in particular, everything in general," I answered in my most flippancy tones.

"Very few women, even young ones, cry for nothing," he asserted me.

"Come, fuss up to old Cecil and let's see if two heads cannot help to drive the cobwebs away."

To my surprise, I did. And I found that I could talk easier to Cecil than I could to any one else.

"I understand, Lindsey, I understand perfectly just what you are going through, but never mind, it will be all straightened out in the end. Be sure of that."

How he ever made head or tail of my imaginary problems, queer thoughts and varied philosophies, is more than I can understand, but he evidently did.

"We've all been through what you are going through now, old girl," he told me, with a twisted smile of remembrance. "And we've all come out heads up."

Then he told me that the chief reason for leaving England was a girl, a beautiful girl with a twisted mind, as he put it. Someone that he loved very much, and still cared for, but who was not a true mate for him. He had discovered this in time, fortunately, and pulled out in time.

"And it I hadn't," he said with a shiver of his head, "I'd have been lost for life to someone with a perfect face and the understanding of a stone wall. There you are."

"She was the sort of a girl who made you burn for love of her one moment and hate her the next. I should have had to renounce every ideal, every ambition, and settle to a monotonous life where pink teas and dress suits every evening were the largest features on the horizon. Can you imagine what would have happened in the end, Lindsey? I could, hence my trip to America. I realized in time that nothing would ever have changed. Don't even my love for the sea as yet as the last parting shot, that she loved so well. And I was not born to live life by a time-piece nor to be regulated by the family dinner table, I can tell you. It's too bad, for Doris is lovely—and that's all. She would have driven me mad with her prettiness."

(To be continued)

In spite of the awful prices, scarcity of material and the condition of everything in general, we haven't heard a louder complaint. It's been many a day since any woman movement has caught on like the shimmies.

BILLY WALKER

BY FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

"So he has fallen in love, has he? Well, I thought he had more sense than that," said Burton, when Day told him how Night had fallen in love with Spotty.

"So, did I," replied Day, "and I would not have minded it so much if I had only liked her, but I could not endure the sight of her with her ugly, liver-spotted sides."

It made Burton laugh to see how jealous Day was.

"Why," he said, "I never thought before you could get mad and call names."

"Burton, where are you taking me?"

"To the street as soon as we have gone by, taking care to keep out of our sight. My plan is to take him on board a steamer that lies at anchor ready to sail at daybreak tomorrow."

For Constantineople, I shall tell you are on it and he will come with me to get you off; but instead of getting you off, we will get him on, and what is more, we will keep him on so.

He will never get back to Spotty. Now you are to follow us on board the steamer and keep out of sight until we sail; and after that you can come out and make up with him. Now you stay right here until we come back; and no matter how many dogs pass, don't get scared and run away, for if you do it will spoil everything and I won't plan again to get Night away from Spotty for you," said Burton.

"Well, don't be long, for it will be awfully lonesome here, and I shall be afraid every minute of a dog or a policeman finding me," said Day.

Burton took a short cut to the yard where he knew Night was, by going over fences, under fences, and across yards. But what was all this commotion he saw among the goats when he looked down from his perch on the top of the wall?

There was Night going from group to group, bleating and bawling in a most excited manner, and not even looking at Spotty, who came tangling after with a long face at not being noticed. When he came to the group of the wall under which Burton was crouched, he heard him say:

"Have any of you seen or heard of Day? I came back to the yard expecting to find him here, and he is nowhere to be found!"

"Tomorrow," the other goats help him until I go and get Night. When we pass, you are not to move or let us wait and follow us on the other side."

Everlasting Fire

Mistress (to cook from the oven):—"Well, what do you think of one of these?"

Cook—"I think them wonderful, ma'am. Why, those in the kitchen haven't gone out since I came here over a week ago."—Karlshagen (Christiania).

Just What He Was Going To Say

An Irishman in the employ of a Boston man had received an injury, not much more than a scratch. It appeared, but the employer had visions of being compelled to keep him for life. So the latter adopted the wise course of sending Dolan to a hospital at once. After the house surgeon had examined him carefully, he said to the nurse:

"As silentaneous abrasion is not desirable, I do not think there is any reason to apprehend regimental classification of the wound."

Then turning to the patient, he asked quizzically:

"What do you think, Dolan?"

"Sire, you're a wonderful mind reader," said Dolan. "You took the very words out of my mouth. That's what I was going to say."

One of Them

"This picture," said Mr. Gawker, "was painted in a garret," replied the proud owner.

"Well! Well!"

"A hundred thousand wouldn't buy it now!" said Mr. Gawker, eyeing the masterpiece more closely. "And I'm one of the hundred thousand."

What Does "Friend" Mean?

"That new C. O. of ours sure is a stand-offish gut," complained the private who had just come off guard, as he lay on his bunk.

"How come?" queried the barracks orderly.

"Well, last night I heard him coming up to my post, so I asks, 'who goes there?' He says, 'Friend.' And this morning he don't hardly notice me."

Did You?

A furrier was selling a coat to a woman customer. "Yes, ma'am," he said, "I guarantee this to be genuine skunk for that will wear for years."

"But suppose I get it wet in the rain," asked the woman, "what effect will the water have on it? What will happen to it then? Won't it spoil?"

"Madam," answered the furrier, "I have only one answer: Did you ever hear of a skunk carrying an umbrella?"

All Going Smoothly

The chaplain came gliding along the road coming back from the front lines several hours after the infantry had gone over the top.

"How are things going up there?" inquired an artillery lieutenant.

"Fine, fine," said the chaplain. "We're knocking them for a goal."

"Haven't seen many prisoners," said the lieutenant skeptically.

"No, and I guess you won't," replied the chaplain; "our machine guns haven't jammed all morning."—Home Sector.

Changed His Mind

He was well up in the sixties and always got a lot of pleasure out of walking. "He would always say: 'You city people don't get out enough and walk.'"

In his short stay in the city he stepped into his son's downtown magazine shop and said: "I just walked down from Thirty-fourth street. With pride he added: 'That's not bad for a young fellow like me! And, by the way,

HARDING CAPTURES SCIOTO COUNTY AND SIXTH DISTRICT; THOMAS LEADS DEMOCRAT DELEGATES

Wood Makes A Splendid Showing In Portsmouth; County Vote For Harding

In as pretty a political race as was ever staged in these parts, Tuesday, the backers of Senator Warren G. Harding managed to outvote the adherents of General Leonard Wood in the preferential presidential primary by a slight lead in the city and a comfortable majority of several hundred in the county. The battle of ballots resembled a small skirmish when the number of votes are taken into consideration, but the interest was intense and the result kept both sides guessing until practically all the city precincts had been accounted for.

The Harding faction knew all along they had a stiff fight on their hands, and when it was seen they had carried the day, they were ready for no other than a full-scale battle. The city, as a whole, was generally conceded previous to the primary, held the main Wood strength. It had all along been admitted that Senator Harding would have more than half the county vote. These predictions were verified by the result. Portsmouth, like most cities, gave General Wood a big vote, based on the votes cast. But out in the country the Harding fellows seemed to have things pretty much their own way and what they lacked in the city precincts was more than made up in the rural places.

The vote cast was surprisingly small. Those who had predicted the Republicans would show half of the party strength were as bad prophets as Cheever, et al. In this respect the city was even more negligent than the country and about one Republican in five exercised his right of franchise. There was plenty of work done by the followers of both Senator Harding and General Wood but the voters could not be aroused and preferred the pleasure of home rather than having the elements to reach the polls. The friends of General Wood had contended all along that the smaller the vote the better the chances of their candidate. On the other hand the Harding adherents maintained that with a full strength vote cast their candidate would win by a big majority.

Scioto county, like every county in the Sixth congressional district, stood loyally behind the candidacy of Senator Harding, whose majority in the district over General Wood will probably reach 2500. The Harding delegates at large, Messrs. Herick, Daugherty, Willis and Galvin, ran up fairly well, with Mr. Daugherty receiving the smallest vote. The district delegates for Harding, Charles E. Hart of Portsmouth, and J. O. McManis, of West Union, Adams county, easily carried the day over the Wood delegates, Frank Lee Sikes, of Sciotoville, and Colonel J. W. Barger, of Pike.

Mr. Hart, upon whose candidacy was centered a hard fight by the local Wood organization, emerged from the fray with a smiling countenance. He led his ticket in practically every precinct in this city and was highly elated at the showing he made. He put in some hard hours in behalf of Senator Harding during the closing days of the campaign and that his efforts counted was shown in the result. Mr. Hart was the recipient of congratulations on every hand and stated he would go to the convention at Chicago with the full purpose of doing everything possible to accomplish the nomination of Senator Harding as the Republican candidate for the presidency of the United States. He thoroughly believes in the capabilities of the junior Senator from Ohio and believes the result in the Sixth district will go a long way toward accomplishing the nomination of Mr. Harding.

Coming down to cold figures, the fight in the city was desperately close, especially in reference to the vote on delegates at large. Former U. S. Senator Myron T. Herrick had the distinction of leading all Harding candidates, receiving a total of 741 votes. Frank B. Willis was second with 720, Harry Daugherty third with 704, and Major Galvin, of Chillicothe, bringing up the rear with 681. The Wood delegates at large, William H. Boyd, of Cleveland, received a total of 618, while Edward C. Turner secured 575 votes. In the city the vote for the district delegates was as follows:

TURNIPSEED AND ROUDEBUSH WIN IN SIXTH; HARDING DELEGATES WINNERS

Interest in the primary in the Sixth congressional district from a Democratic standpoint was not very intense. There was a three-cornered contest for delegate to the national convention, the candidates being A. G. Turnipseed, of West Union, Dr. G. P. Thomas, of Peebles, and Senator W. F. Roudelush, of Batavia, the entry of two Adams county men being due to a factional fight in that county. All candidates were for Governor Cox. Returns in any complete form were not available early Wednesday, but from reports The Times is justified in saying that Turnipseed and Roudelush have undoubtedly been chosen. Dr. Thomas made his best showing in Scioto county where he is several hundred ahead of Turnipseed. The result in Adams county, but Turnipseed claims to have carried the county. It is thought Turnipseed and Roudelush carried Clermont, Brown and Highland counties by substantial majorities. Locally Turnipseed's vote averaged about two and one-half to a precinct.

On the Republican side there were two sets of delegates. Hon. Charles E. Hart and J. O. McManis, the latter of West Union, were Harding delegates, while Col. John W. Barger, of Pike, and Frank L. Sikes, of Sciotoville, were the Wood delegates. Incomplete returns from the district showed that Harding and McManis had carried every county in the district by substantial majorities, and that they would have in the neighborhood of 2,000 to 2,500 each in the district. Locally where an especially bitter fight was directed at Mr. Hart, he gained quite a triumph, leading all other delegate candidates in most precincts. His majority in the district, will also be greater than that of McManis.

On the preferential vote Governor Cox got practically all of the Democratic votes and Harding led Wood about the same as did his delegate candidates.

Premier Model 6-D Seven Passenger Open Car

IN A WAY, this aluminumized, magnetically-shifted Premier may be regarded as America's new delegate to the world's congress of fine cars. Until now Europe has held leadership in the fine car field simply through default of competition. Concurrent with the appearance of this American contender, that condition is ended.

It represents a new conception of how truly beautiful a mechanical thing may be; and in the same breath, it discredits precedent on the limit to which human patience may be strained in perfecting detail down to the last minute touch. Premier is microscopically fine. Its possession instantly stamps its owner as an advanced thinker.
